James H. Beattie : Greenhouse Construction and Heating (U.S. Department of Agriculture Farmers' Bulletin No. 1318) before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Greenhouse Construction and Heating (U.S. Department of Agriculture Farmers' Bulletin No. 1318):

The condition was better than described. The book was wrapped very nicely and securely. I was hoping the book would offer ideas to the intermediate plant person, which it did, without "talking down" to me. I found the book very informative and being 70+ years old it makes a nice addition to the library.
