I already have three projects lined up that I can get started on even though there's still snow on the ground here in northwestern Connecticut. The project I'm most excited about is the willow switch fencing in page 156. The book is so beautifully shot, and the instructions for things I never would have thought to try are easy to follow and beautifully illustrated. Guagliumi's whole approach makes me want to up my game in the garden. She needs her own TV show!7 of 7 people found the following review helpful. A beautiful and inspiring book!By RosemarieIt's not fair that this book arrives when there is still snow on the ground! It will inspire you to add a personal and artful touch to your outdoor surroundings. The illustrations and instructions are simple and the ideas so creative. I think this book would make an ideal gift for garden friends.3 of 3 people found the following review helpful. Great Gift - Bought 4 of them!!!By TootsiePWant the perfect gift for the novice to experienced gardener? This is it!!! Even though Susan lives in the East Coast, her ideas, tips and step by step instructions apply to gardening throughout the country. I love how she pairs plants with pots, like pairing wine with meals. I've been following her and her blog for years - this book is stellar!!

The DIY craze has moved beyond the craft room and into the garden! Relying on easy-to-find, inexpensive, and repurposed materials, Handmade for the Garden is a treasure trove of original projects that not only make planting and growing efficient and successful but also add a personal touch to the gardenscape. Among the myriad projects in this hardworking book are mini hothouses; painted, stamped, and stenciled terracotta planters; hypertufa and cement pots and decorations; rustic and formal fencing and trellises; plant markers and stakes; and sieves and baskets. With Handmade for the Garden to inspire them, gardeners of all skill levels will be empowered to experiment with form and function to discover creative, artful ways to personalize and beautify their gardens with handmade objects.
